MIN GUILLAUME THANKS THE COMMITMENT OF THE LIVING FORCES OF THE AGRICULTURAL

ENCOURAGES RESPONSIBLE ACT OF PURCHASE

Paris, Washington DC, 21.03.2020, 16:41 Time

USPA NEWS - Didier Guillaume, Minister of Agriculture and Food, thanks the commitment of the driving forces of the agricultural and Agrifood chain and encourages everyone's responsibility in the act of purchasing. Since the spread of the Covid 19 virus began, farmers and workers in cooperatives, SMEs, the food industry and distributors have been there to secure the food production and supply process. This is a crucial and strategic issue for our country because health and food have been the two main concerns of our citizens since the start of the crisis.

Didier Guillaume, Minister of Agriculture and Food, thanks the commitment of the driving forces of the agricultural and Agrifood chain and encourages everyone's responsibility in the act of purchasing. Since the spread of the Covid 19 virus began, farmers and workers in cooperatives, SMEs, the food industry and distributors have been there to secure the food production and supply process. This is a crucial and strategic issue for our country because health and food have been the two main concerns of our citizens since the start of the crisis. The Minister recalls the essential role of these actors in producing quality, safe and defined food, as well as that of our infrastructures and that of state agents ensuring health security.-----

Thanks to their commitments and their sense of responsibility, the Minister indicates that there is no risk of disruption in the supply chain of stores, food markets or halls. Therefore, everyone must be responsible and serene in their act of shopping by shopping every 2-3 days and continue to diversify their diet with fresh seasonal products, meat, eggs, seafood, vegetable proteins "11". The right nutritional balance is also an element that promotes good health. Finally, the Minister recalls the need to respect protective distances and barrier gestures during any act of purchase.
